QUASTILO EXCLUSIVES

Quastilo is a full-service licensed brokerage. The team comprises by experienced agents who have achieved a proven track record of success, not just in selling properties, but by representing buyers and sellers with integrity and professionalism. Having to deal with dozens of clients who experienced the importance of a personalized marketing approach and having the wish to distinguish ourselves from the competition, we have created the Quastilo Exclusives brand that serves Developers and individual Sellers to get exceptional results, by listing and representing exclusively with us their property in the market, using proven tactics, methodologies and lots of enthusiasm.

Selecting the right real estate agent to represent you to sell your property is paramount. Selling your property is a very personal and emotional process and we take that into deep consideration. Our agency will address the main points for defining your property's marketability and let you decide on what actions shall be followed for selling the property at the right price but more importantly at the right time. We focus on marketing and in creating an image that's desirable to potential buyers; everything is designed in such a way to attract a qualified lead. A well-structured marketing approach with a focus on the right promotion and advertising will define the success of the sale. The package includes photography and videography, web and social media exposure, presentation, viewings, networking, open houses, pricing plan and much more.
